

licensed establishment the board of license commissioners may immediately authorize the issuance of a special Sunday "on-sale" permit if in the opinion of the board and upon good cause shown the newly licensed establishment meets the specifications of [subsection (1) of this section] PARAGRAPH (1) OF THIS SUBSECTION pertaining to the preparation, serving and sale of food and provided further that the holder of the license thereafter complies with the provision of this [subsection] PARAGRAPH (4). Applicants for a special Sunday "on-sale" permit shall furnish the board of license commissioners with such proof as it may deem necessary indicating the qualifications of the establishment to be issued such a permit.

The holder of a special Sunday "on-sale" permit shall be subject to all other provisions of this article pertaining to beer, wine and liquor licenses, Class B, in force and effect in Prince George's County, except that any restrictions on the sale of alcoholic beverages on Sunday appearing in § 103 and elsewhere shall not apply. Holders of such a permit shall submit to the board from time to time at regular intervals to be established by the board, a statement indicating in detail the ratio of food sales to the sales of alcoholic beverages. If the average daily receipts from the sale of food fail for three successive months to equal forty percent (40%) of the total daily receipts from the sale of food and alcoholic beverages the board shall cancel such permit. It shall be permissible for the licensee of a Class B, beer, wine and liquor license with a special Sunday "on-sale" permit and the licensee of a Class BH license to sell beer, wine and liquor by the drink from the bar and/or a cocktail lounge to persons on the licensed premises.

The board of license commissioners is authorized to adopt such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary relating to the issuance, suspension and cancellation of said permits in furtherance of this subsection.

The annual fee for such a special Sunday "on-sale" permit shall be five hundred ($500.00) dollars, which shall be in addition to the annual fee for the beer, wine and liquor license, Class B, to which it shall be attached.

(5) In Prince George's County there shall be, in addition to the classes herein provided, a special Class B license known as Class BLX which shall be issued only to luxury type restaurants; they shall be applied for in the regular manner and shall have a license fee of nine hundred and forty ($940.00) dollars. A luxury type restaurant shall be as defined by the rules and regulations of the board of liquor license commissioners for Prince George's County, provided that said restaurant has a minimum capital investment of $300,000.00 for dining room facilities and kitchen equipment, which sum shall not include the cost of land, buildings or a lease, with a minimum seating capacity of 150 persons. The board of license commissioners shall have complete discretion as to whom these licenses shall be issued, the number to be issued, and as to whether an existing license holder of an alcoholic beverage license in Prince George's County may also have an interest in one Class BLX license, except that under no other circumstances shall any individual or corporation be allowed to hold more than one license. This license shall be limited and restricted to the purpose of providing alcoholic beverages for consumption on the licensed premises only, with no off-sale privileges to be exercised therewith.

(1) In the jurisdictions in which this subsection is applicable, it shall be unlawful for anyone to sell or for any licensed dealer to deliver, give away or otherwise dispose of any alcoholic beverages on Sunday. Any person selling or any licensed dealer delivering, giving away or otherwise disposing of such beverages in such [jurisdiction] JURISDICTIONS on Sundays shall be guilty of a
